Henry T. Duncan Award

In 1960, during the tenure of then-FCBA President Alvin Trigg, the Henry T. Duncan award was created to honor a member of the association who had made an outstanding contribution to the community. In 1961 the first Duncan Award was presented to two such individuals, Herbert Sledd and William H. Townsend.

By way of illustration and not by way of limitation, this award is presented to an attorney whose integrity, leadership and professional conduct serves to exemplify the high ethical and professional standards that benefit the community.

Citizen Lawyer Award

This award honors one member of the Fayette County Bar Association who has:

- practiced at least 10 years in Fayette County;
- provides duties as an officer of the Court, fiduciary and advocate of clients;
- is involved in governmental, civic, charitable or community activities;

- and has demonstrated a sincere desire to maintain and improve the administration of justice, the quality of legal practice and the quality of life for all residents of Fayette County.

Outstanding Young Lawyer Award

This award honors one member of the Fayette County Bar Association who has:

- practiced in Fayette County less than 10 years;
- Demonstrated promise in learning the practical application of law to human problems;
- admirably fulfilled the duties owed by an attorney to the Court, clients and the community the attorney serves;
- and shown dedication to the justice system through their involvement and enhancement of community life.
