

Henry T. Duncan Award

In 1960, during the tenure of then-FCBA President Alvin Trigg, the Henry T. Duncan award was created to honor a member of the association who had made an outstanding contribution to the community. In 1961 the first Duncan Award was presented to two such individuals, Herbert Sledd and William H. Townsend. By way of illustration and not by way of limitation, this award is presented to an attorney whose integrity, leadership, and professional conduct serves to exemplify the high ethical and professional standards that benefit the community.

Citizen Lawyer Award

This award honors one member of the Fayette County Bar Association who has:

- practiced at least 10 years in Fayette County;
- provides duties as an officer of the Court, fiduciary, and advocate of clients;
- is involved in governmental, civic, charitable, or community activities;
- and has demonstrated a sincere desire to maintain and improve the administration of justice, the quality of legal practice, and the quality of life for all residents of Fayette County.

Outstanding Young Lawyer Award

This award honors one member of the Fayette County Bar Association who has:

- practiced in Fayette County less than 10 years;
- Demonstrated promise in learning the practical application of law to human problems;
- admirably fulfilled the duties owed by an attorney to the Court, clients, and the community the attorney serves;
- and shown dedication to the justice system through their involvement and enhancement of community life.

Outstanding Deputy Clerk Award

This award will recognize a Fayette County Circuit or District Court Deputy Clerk who has provided outstanding service and/or assistance.

Justice James Keller Law Day Award

Chosen by the Law Day committee and given for exemplary service to the legal community. Not an annual award.

Law Enforcement Award (LFUGC Div. of Police or Fayette County Sherriff's Department – they alternate years)

This award will honor one member of the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government Division of Police who has (1) admirably fulfilled the duties of a law enforcement officer; (2) exhibited dedication to service to the Fayette County Community; (3) and whose leadership, integrity and professional conduct exemplifies the high ethical and professional standards of law enforcement which benefit the community.